About Membership Categories

The membership categories are defined by the CCI National Board of Directors. There are three representing those categories other than the Condominium Corporations: As well, effective July 1, 2021, CCI's new designation, to recognize its members from any profession or trade who have and continue to contribute knowledge and expertise to CCI and the condominium industry. For more information and to apply, visit: <https://cci.ca/about/lcci-designation>

Professional

This group includes all those individuals who earn a portion or all of their income from providing professional services to the condominium industry, for example, lawyers, accountants, engineers, condominium managers, real estate agents or brokers, appraisers, insurance brokers, etc. The membership and benefits belong to the named professional only.

Business Partner

Any corporation (other than one that would qualify for a condominium or professional membership), partnership, sole proprietorship, government agency, investment firm, lending institution, advertising company, or other business entity involved in the condominium industry. Each business designates a "member representative" to cast their vote and receive information from CCI. The membership and benefits are shared with the employees of the business partner membership

Individual

Persons who have an interest in the condominium community can become individual members. This group of members includes condominium owners, authors, and professors. The membership and benefits belong to the named individual only.

Pro-rated membership for NEW Members

Where there is interest in any NEW category of membership to CCI-London & Area Chapter that occurs at any time after January 1st and before end of any current fiscal year of June 30th:

The resolution of the CCI Board of Directors relative to a pro-rated NEW membership during the period of January 1st to June 30th of a current fiscal year is to offer a ½ year option (at ½ the current membership fee) along with membership for the following fiscal year at the current membership rate at the time and where no further action will take place relative to any increase in the membership fee for the following fiscal year.
